Meet the Bob Sofa, which with its simple and timeless design offers the flexibility to perfectly adapt to every space, and prioritizes comfort with its twisted form and high backrest.

Indoor

Designed as single, double and triple, the Bob sofa gently divides the space with its rounded form and high, sheltered backrest, and is installed as an anchoring piece, providing extra flexibility in terms of adapting to any space thanks to its fixed and rotatable legs in its single sofa model.

Offering the opportunity to create numerous combinations with its different alternatives of colour, fabric and leather on its internal and external parts adding dynamism to the design.

The Bob sofa turns into a perfect style, independently from the style of the interior space where it is placed, thanks to its impressive look drawing attention on both sides.
